The Comique today has a lively laugh-producing program, brimful of the stuff that laughs are made of. "My Wife's Gonna Get the Country," also "Sam Not Wanted in the Family." Two extra good comedy subjects, anyone inclined toward fun will enjoy a hearty laugh every minute during the presentation of the two pictures.

The Bijou offers to-day, along with some other good pictures, "Wonders of Nature." It is a film showing the marvels of beauty in the many waterfalls near Twin Falls, Idaho. The famous Shoshone falls are shown and are especially beautiful. It is doubtful if nature was ever more truly depicted on the canvas than in this picture. Remember, the Bijou changes pictures every day now.

Today's Burlington Free Press has the following of interest about Mrs. Nellie Brasley and L. G. Griffith who sang at a concert in Burlington last night: "Mrs. Brasley, who lately returned to Burlington from Barre, was cordially welcomed. Her voice has lost none of the sweetness which characterized it when she was a resident of Burlington and she will be a distinct addition to the city's musical circles. Mr. Griffith is one of the best tenors heard in Burlington in a long time and the audience would have enjoyed hearing him in other selections."

Barre theatre-goers should bear in mind that "Uncle Dave Hobbins," which will be produced at the Barre opera house this evening, has "made good" in its short history, having started at Schenectady, N. Y., only a week ago and being now on a short trip prior to opening at the Globe theatre in Boston for a month's stay. Wherever it has been shown, the audiences have been very much pleased, in Burlington Monday night and Montpelier last night. A. H. McKee, who is a newspaper man on the New York Herald generally, is business manager of this company, especially, and he is beginning to think that his wife wasn't wrong when she urged him to quit newspaper work.

One who is in the habit of seeing motion pictures in various theatres every day and who is a competent and keen observer, has the following to say of "The Stamped" to-day at Dreamland. "The atmosphere of the whole picture is real. The photographs were taken on a big ranch in Texas. The hundreds of horses, wild and unruly, herded by regular cowboys, is most interesting. Later in the picture, when the big stampede comes in, from which the film derives its name, may be seen thousands of mad streets in a terrific race to get away from possible danger. It is certainly a stirring scene and one long to be remembered by an audience. I think I can safely say that this picture is the best of its kind I ever witnessed." Change of pictures every day now at Dreamland.
